

Saint Teilo

Feast Day 9 February

St. Teilo is a significant figure in Welsh Christian history. Born in the sixth century, St. Teilo became renowned for his piety and dedication to the Christian faith and was instrumental in establishing monastic communities as well as churches across Wales.

Teilo's connection with Orthodoxy is evident in his teachings and practices, which were firmly rooted in the traditions of the early Church. As a bishop, he upheld Orthodox doctrine and worked tirelessly to combat heresy, ensuring that the faithful adhered to the true teachings of Christianity. His efforts helped solidify the Church in Wales as well as lay solid foundations for its growth.

Today, St. Teilo is venerated as one of the patron saints of Wales and revered in Orthodoxy. His role in shaping the Christian identity of the nation is undeniable.

Further reading on St Teilo can be found here:

Saint Teilo of Wales:Orthodox Christianity

Saint Teilo of Llandeilo